SEQUEL TO AN ELECTION-DAY DIFFICULTY.

A Happy Ending—The Development of the Place as a Shipping Point—New Steamships—Personalities and Briefs.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., November 9.—(Special.)—A sequel to the difficulty which occurred at Precinct No. 2, in this city, last Tuesday developed this morning. It will be remembered that on election-day W. T. Moss, an attorney, assaulted Dr. J. H. Bagby, a member of the County Electoral Board, and two other men at the polls. This morning Dr. Bagby met Mr. Moss on the street, and the difficulty was renewed. Dr. Bagby was the aggressor, and he landed the first blow. The two men clinched, and were soon separated by mutual friends. A warrant was sworn out against Dr. Bagby, and he was fined $5 and costs by Justice Barrett for assaulting Mr. Moss. Dr. Bagby says that he was insulted by Mr. Moss on election-day, and that, as (Moss) showed no disposition to apologize, after having ample opportunity to do so, he (Bagby) felt justified in striking him this morning. Mr. Moss, while in the court-room, announced to Dr. Bagby for his assault on Tuesday, and the two men were sent on to the grand jury Wednesday for the assault he committed on Dr. Bagby and Messrs. C. B. A. Booker and George Cowen on election-day.

BOYKIN'S MAJORITY.
Colonel R. E. Boykin, of Smithfield, who was elected to the Senate by the Democrats last Tuesday, probably received a larger majority than any other senatorial candidate in the State. His electoral vote was as follows: Southampton county, 58; Nanamoud county, 58; Isle of Wight county, 112. Total majority, 228.

Justice J. D. G. Brown and Deputy Sheriff J. H. Barclay, of this city, have been summoned to appear at the Henrico County Court Monday morning to testify in the case of the Commonwealth vs. James Kilgore. Kilgore recently served a term of imprisonment here for breaking into a Chesapeake and Ohio freight-car. He was taken from this city to Henrico county a few days ago.

A recent issue of the Cincinnati Post contained the following paragraph, which illustrates the development of Newport News as a shipping point:

"The Chesapeake and Ohio is promoting its steamship business in a manner calculated to make Newport News one of the largest ports in the country. The freight business to foreign ports has increased so largely that two new steamships will be put on to Rotterdam and Amsterdam. The first trip will be made December 10th. A line to Leith, Scotland, will be established November 7th, the new ships being the Rosemont and the Roslyn. On November 15th there will be a new line to Glasgow, Scotland, two new steamers, the Sarnia and Oregon, having been secured. W. P. Walker, Jr., of the Chesapeake and Ohio Steamship Line, and E. M. Whitaker, manager of the Chesapeake and Ohio Steamship Line, will leave for New York Wednesday to meet a number of capitalists who are interested in the new line."

WILL BE REGRETTED.
The term of Rev. R. M. Chandler's pastorate at the Methodist Episcopal church, which will expire tomorrow, he having been here for four years. Rev. Mr. Chandler is a very popular minister, and his departure will be regretted by people of all denominations.

Miss Alice Sutton has returned from a visit to friends at Mount Pleasant, King William county.

C. W. Jewell has returned to Beaufort, S. C., after a month's stay in this city.

THE ANCESTRAL CAPITAL.
University Alumni-Social and Personal Notes.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., November 9.—(Special.)—The university alumni resident here and in the adjoining counties, and who recently met and organized, have named the following committee to cooperate with the university in raising funds throughout the State in raising funds to restore the buildings recently destroyed by fire: Lyon G. Tyler, Rev. W. T. Roberts, Hon. James N. Smith, Rev. W. F. Davis, and C. W. Coleman. This committee promises to do some good work for their Alma Mater.

Rev. W. F. Davis, of the Methodist church here, leaves Tuesday morning, for the annual conference in Richmond. Mr. Davis has been here three years, and has made many friends, who wish to see him on his return, and regret that his term of four years is drawing to a close.

Miss Mary Waller Mercer, daughter of Mr. John L. Mercer, has returned home from a lengthy visit to England and Alexandria, very much improved in health.

Mr. G. Frank Wilkins, of this town, who is attending the Southern States business college at Richmond, has home during the week, visiting his parents.

Mrs. J. H. Topham left yesterday for a ten-days' visit to the Atlanta Exposition. Mrs. Topham will be joined in Richmond by her niece, Miss Anna Owens, of Manchester.

Mr. Elmore Hendley, from the State Hospital, returned yesterday (from a trip to Washington, on business connected with the institution).

Miss Annie Galt is in Norfolk, who have been spending some time in Baltimore, and returned, much pleased with and benefited by their visit.

Miss Annie Galt is in Norfolk, visiting the family of her brother, Pymaster W. W. Galt, of the navy.

Mr. Charles Person returned last evening from his annual trip to New York. Mrs. J. Leslie Hall has been spending some time in Richmond with relatives and friends.

Rev. Mr. Herndon, a well-known Presbyterian divine, from Tazewell, was here yesterday to visit a near relative.

Mr. John R. Zimmerman, Jr., after a pleasant visit to his home in Alexandria, returned yesterday to college for the session.

Mr. Cora Lane, who has been spending some time in West Point and Baltimore, will return home Monday evening, accompanied by Miss Lillie Lane, of Auburn, Ala.

Mr. W. G. Jones, principal of the Madison High School, Richmond, is at home for a brief stay with his family.

Professor Rose will give an entertainment Tuesday night, at Cameron Hall, for the benefit of the Episcopal church. As his programme is well gotten up, his performance will, no doubt, be liberally patronized.

The Colonial Inn, the new hotel erected by Mr. John Spencer, is nearing completion, and will be thrown open in time for the Circuit Court, which meets the 15th proximo. A large force of workmen are yet engaged in getting ready the building and grounds for the new owners. Fully $25,000 is being spent in this work, much of which is being spent in our town.

Monday morning a large number of visitors are expected here from Richmond, Norfolk, Hampton, and Newport News, on an excursion for the benefit of the Episcopal church. Mrs. Cynthia Coleman is at the head of the movement, and will throw open her house during their visit, exhibiting many beautiful and interesting relics of Colonial days, especially gotten together for this occasion by a lady of the name of Coleman. Mrs. Coleman is largely identified with church-work, and it is hoped her efforts on this occasion will be as successful as they have been in the past.

THE COHEN CO. STORE-KEEPERS SWELLER

under the loads of unwise and injudicious accumulations the busy house of THE PEOPLE'S STORE is alive with new arrivals from every corner of the globe. New prices force their way until the ROLLING BILLOWS OF BARGAINS cause an overflow and are beyond the pass of control for storage. The NEW-PRICED MERCHANDISE must find its flow in a clerks will be added to relieve the throngs. 517 packages of CHINA AND GLASSWARE that shall bring a revelation to Richmond shoppers. 13 cases of LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S WRAPS. 21 cases of BOOKS. 157 packages of LINENS, SILKS, and other promiscuous lines. ALL ARRIVED WITHIN THIS PAST ONE WEEK.
